TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

TORONTO BLUE JAYS

ROUTE 511 Cars from Bathurst subway station and ROUTE 521 Cars from King & Church run very frequently and stop inside the Eastern Entrance of Exhibition Place within a short walk of your seat at the stadium. The streetcars connect with the subway and surface routes to put you minutes away from the game from anywhere in Metro.

DUFFERIN 29 buses pass the Dufferin subway station and run directly to the Western Entrance of Exhibition Place. Frequent service puts you minutes away from anywhere in Metro.

The Toronto Transit Commission also provides convenient, low cost parking for your car at Islington, Keele, Victoria Park, Warden, Finch and Wilson subway stations.

If you're coming from outside of Metro you can take the Lakeshore GO train right to Exhibition Place. There's a GO Train stop just a short walk from your seat at the ballpark, and free parking is provided at most GO Train stations to let you leave your car and ride to the game and back without a worry.
